

The Why...Behind Decision Making

“Values are beliefs held so strongly that they affect the behaviour of an individual or organization.”

– Russ Watson

Purpose: Understand why you make the decisions you make and why conflicts arise

Discussion/interactive points:

- Understand the attitudes and values that filter how one sees the world and ultimately affects how one's decisions are made and why conflicts sometimes arise
- Recognize and appreciate others' attitudes and be able to “ see the world through their eyes”
- Identify personal strengths and keys to managing and leading others
- Develop insights into creating environments that are important for self motivation and for motivation of others
- Understand and align values and attitudes for success & less stress in one's personal and work environment

Each participant will receive & utilize during the work shop:

Workplace Motivators Profile:

A personalized report highlighting six basic attitudes that drive ones actions, impact the way one views the world, act as filters through which one sees and experiences life.

Note: Profiles are completed prior to participation in workshop, through a secure internet delivery system and confidentiality is ensured at all times. Profiles take approximately 10 minutes to complete.
